

Africa Golf Summit 2015: Developing the Blue Print for Sustainable Golf Industry and Community in Africa

Conference Delegate Application Form

The Africa Golf Summit will be held at Serengeti Golf and Wildlife Estate from 9 – 11 September 2015.

About Africa Golf Summit (AGS):

Golf is a legendary sport that provides endless challenge and excitement for golfers all over the world. But the game also makes an important contribution to tourism, employment, socio-economic growth, sport development and the environment.

The Africa Golf Summit will be a draw-card for a wide range of stakeholders relating to the golfing world. This includes professional and amateur golfers, VIPs, sport, tourism and business professionals and a range of government and private sector delegates. Speakers at the summit are renowned specialists from South Africa, Africa, the US and the UK.

AGS promises to deliver break-through opportunities for a range of key players in the golfing, tourism, economic development and sporting sectors. The summit will gather experts from a diverse range of business and government fraternities and provide a much-needed platform for meaningful progress to be made through the golfing industry.

Important topics to be explored and debated include the following:

- Growing a sustainable golfing community in Africa
- Establishing a Golfing Centre of Excellence to develop young talent
- Golf tourism and hospitality
- Golf sports development
- Golf estate and property development
- Golf course design, construction, operations and management
- Hosting golf tournaments to boost job growth, tourism and economic development

About Serengeti Golf and Wildlife Estate:

The estate boasts a Jack Nicklaus signature golf course, world-class conference facilities and five-star cuisine, all set within wetlands and prime African bush. Golf estate living is becoming an increasingly desirable lifestyle choice, golf also impacts the construction, property and eco-friendly leisure industries.
